"What the Church Says to the Voter" was the topic of the evening discourse of the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Eaton at the Church of the Divine Paternity, Seventy-sixth-st. and Central Park West, yesterday. Dr. Eaton began by saying that not say to the voter than what the Church did say No matter how good the career of a candidate, the Church did not recommend him, nor did it point platform.

There are certain things which are God's," continued Dr. Eaton, "and certain things which are Cæsar's. Render, therefore, unto God that which is His, and unto Cæsar or the Government that which is Cæsar's. In a moment, however, there may arise a crisis, and because it is of a political nature are the clergy to remain silent? I do not think that is the right attitude. If the Church has a duty in these days it is in insisting not upon the privilege, but on the duty, of the franchise. On the eve of election the Church says to you if you fall to perform that duty you have failed in one duty essential to manhood."

Dr. Eaton said that it was the desire of the Church that the casting of the ballot be attended with pure motives, and that the Church desired, above all things, a pure ballot, in connection with this he made a plea for a pure judiciary. No nation, he said, could ever hope to preserve its National integrity without a pure judiciary. When the judiciary of a nation became smirched history in the past had shown that it was only a matter of time hefore that particular nation fee.

This may be classed in the category of things that are interesting, if ducted by the Republicans, who may reply with view of pleasing Croker.

Croker says truly: "We have done our best to keep before the people the State issues," and adds: keep before the people the State issues," and adds:
"We labored to exclude National issues, believing that the minds of the people should not under any circumstances be diverted from State issues." Unfortunately for Mr. Croker they have been some what diverted, with reference to Congressmen, for example. In the next breath Croker goes on to mention National matters, raving about the "incompetence of the War Department."
"It would be an easy matter for our committee to predict in figures," says Croker, via McCarren. "the substantial majority that we know Judge Van Wyck will receive." But he didn't do it, via McCarren. Last night, when seen at Koster & Bial's, he said that Van Wyck would be elected by 50,000 majority, but he wouldn't give the figures by counties, nor did he tell how he arrived at his comforting conclusion.

FINAL APPEAL TO GERMAN-AMERICANS. ARTHUR VON BRIESEN CALLS UPON THEM TO VOTE FOR ROOSEVELT AND INDE-

Arthur Von Briesen, president of the Rooseveit League of Independent German-Americans, issued the following address last night-

An Appeal to Our Fellow-Chizens: In this campaign German-Americans have signified unmistakably the candidates for whom they will cast their ballots. It becomes manifest, in comparing the two recent German mass-meetings, ours was characterized by a truly spontaneous selasm of earnest, thoughtful, representative who filled the hall to its utmost capacity, a the meeting that advocated the Democratic idate consisted of a motiey crowd, drummed her by a few office-seekers and hirelings. We confident that our German fellow-citizens will be misled by false arguments.

Its of the utmost importance for the country, city, and even for our own hearths, that we hack to its lairs of vice the corrupt gang hievies tribute on everything within its reach, which does not recoil from opening wide the storice as a means to its end, and thereby oning the morals of the growing generation, fair fame of the United States is at stake, estimated.

If the Silverites receive encouragement for the aext Presidential campaign, we will drift again into a state of uncertainty and doubt; commerce would be disturbed, and another financial panie may be precipitated.

We can by no means intrust our State and city to the irresponsible puppets of Richard Croker; nor can we expect justice in the courts if our judges are under his lash.

Don't be hoodwinked by the convenient word 'imperialism.' which but serves to cover up the important issue of sound money.

Therefore we make this last appeal to you, German-American fellow-citizens of this great country. Do your offices to bring about a victory for Rocsevelt, for independent judges, for sound-money Regressmittles in 'congress and in the Legislature.

M'CULLAGH GIVES WARNING.

TELLS OF TAMMANY I REPARATIONS FOR ELECTION DAY.

John McCullagh, State Superintendent of Elections for the Metropolitan District, addressed the following letter to the Board of Police Commissioners yesterday. He also sent copy of the same communication to the Mayor:

a copy of the same communication to the Mayor:

Gentlemen: It has come to my official knowledge through reports made to me by my deputies that open threats of violence and intimidation have been made by certain persons residing in the VIth Assembly District against the electors of such district who shall refuse to support the candidates of the party to which these persons who have made these threats belong.

I am reliably informed that it is proposed to import into that district, thugs, crooks and panhandlers from New-Jersey. Connecticut and the city of Troy, prominent among those of the latter city being some of the men identified with what has become generally known as the "Bat Shea" gang. It is proposed that these men shall be massed in groups in the early hours of the day of election and invade the polling-places and to vote upon the names of qualified electors and those not qualified; that another gang led by a notorious character, a resident of an adjoining district, is to terrorize and assault the workers of the opposite political party, and that false charges of assault and other crimes are to be made against such workers for the purpose of having them arrested and detained in the station-house in order to deprive their political party of their services.

These threats of intimidation and violence seem to be in line with the advice of a once eminent statesman, who upon a political platform in this city has publicly advocated the use of violence toward officers of the State of New-York, sworn to protect the rights of the electors. Such advice, echoed as it has been by other persons in authority, is calculated to inflame the ignorant and victous class of society, especially in the district mentioned. I shall have no hesitation, however, in instructing my deputies to promptly arrest every person who is not entitled to vote and who shall do so. I shall forward to you a list of the names of persons, arranged by Assembly and election districts, who were registered as voters but who have since removed from the election district in which they were so registered, and I hereby require you to take such action as will prevent any person from voting upon such names. I also shall forward to you a list of persons so removed who have died since the last registration to the end that you may take such steps as will prevent their names being voted upon.

In conclusion, I, John McCullagh, the State Superintendent of Elections for the Metropolitan District, in pursuance of the authority vested in me under the provisions of Chapter 6% of the Laws of 1898, which gives me the right to call upon any public officer, his assistants and subordinates, for render such aid as may be required and demanded in the performance of my duties, do hereby formally notify you that I do demand that the Police Board of the city of New-Yerk and each member thereof shall, as a Board or as individuals, take such action as will prevent any act of intimidation or terrorization to the electors of any portion of the city of New-Yerk and each member thereof shall, as a Board or as individuals, take such action as will prevent any act of intimidation or terrorization to the electors of any portion of the city of New-Yerk in the exercise of their rights as citizens on the day of election.

LORGNETTE CHAINS,

DIDN'T LIKE PASTOR'S DEMOCRACY. MR. WISHER'S EXPLANATION TO HIS COLORED

The words "I am a Democrat," uttered by the Rev. D. W. Wisher, the colored pastor of the Mount Olivet Baptist Church, at Fifty-third-st. and Seventh-ave., from his pulpit last evening, caused a perfect storm of hisses and resulted in the breaking up of the meeting. The cause that led up to this outburst was a letter written by Mr. Wisher to Edward F. Lee, the self-styled chief of the United Colored Democracy, in which Mr. Wisher said that he had made up his mind that the negro had no place in the Republican party any more. Sunday evening in the absence of Mr. Wisher there was a largely attended meeting at the Mount Oliver Church, the majority of the members of which are Republicans, at which the pastor was soundly de ounced, and it was said that he had written a letter in which he said that he could deliver over the votes of the church to the Democratic party. All yesterday rumors were current that there would be lively times in the church at one or the other of the services. At the morning service there was a large congregation, but no politics. In the evening there was a still larger crowd. Mr. Wisher did not allude to politics in his sermon, but he did say that he intended to make a statement before the end of the service, and that fact kept the audience in an excited state of expectancy until 10:15 o'clock, when the pastor began the expected explanation. He denied that he had ever written letter to any one promising the vote of the say that he believed it to be the duty of every man

MAJOR BYRNE'S APPEAL.

GOLD DEMOCRATS URGED NOT TO GO BACK ON THEIR STAND IN 1896. Major John Byrne, the well-known Sound Money Democrat, who managed the Sound Money Demo-cratic campaign in 1896, has issued a statement to his fellow-Democrats, in which he says:

November 6, 1898.

To Sound Money Democrats, the Men of 1896.

A word of appeal to you before the opportunity to again record yourselves on the side of your country, its honor and safety passes from you-before your stultify your proud record of 1896.

In 1898 you surrendered party allestance, sundered party, and in many instances personal ties, in response to patriotic duty, conscience and principle—Democratic principles. You elected the present Administration, not that you preferred Mr. McKinley and his party or agreed with much for which they stood, but because they alone represented what, as Democrats, you recognize as Democratic doctrine, honest money, National honor and safety. You had no question how you should vote; you voted straight for what you believed.

In this city, at Madison Square Garden, on that memorable August 18, you turned the tide of battle and arrested the march of the doths and Vandais, bearing aloft the stolen banner of your party, its sacred folds stained with the principles of repudiation and National dishonor and ruin. You did not question who were your companions in that and succeeding battlefields of the campaign until the cause was safe for the time being.

Can you seriously have any question as to where his fellow-Democrats, in which he says:

panions in that and succeeding battlefields of the campalgn until the cause was safe for the time being.

Can you seriously have any question as to where your duty calls you to-day? The fact being that the enemy you fought in 1856 was not destroyed, but only repulsed, does not release you from your duty. The same question that arrayed all good and loval citizenship on the side of honest money, National honor and safety, common honesty and morality, appeals to you to-day as strongly as it did in 1866. If any change has occurred since, it has been in the direction of confirming the necessity for your continued support. Bryanism has not slumbered or hesitated since the morning of the first of the confirming the necessity for your continued support. Bryanism has not slumbered or hesitated since the morning of the resy among the people with a well-defined of loci in view—the capture of the Congress in 188. With the Congress to be elected on next Tuesday in forty-two States of this Union in its control, it can so disturb and disrupt the business and industrial interests of this country as to produce the conditions of silver agitation effected in 1886, which enabled Bryanism to capture the Democratic party—contentions necessary to the success of Bryanism. The norsery for the propagation of Bryanism, with all its hideous monatireus, anti-American doctrines, is hard times. The aim and object and effect of free-silver agitation for several years have been to precipitate this country into a condition of business paralysis, with its army of idic, discontented labor, strained business conditions, indebtedness on falling prices, and then offer the panacea of debased money as a remety. This conspiracy, launched by the Free Silver Trust, owned largely in foreign countries, upon the success of which in this country it expended immense sums of money, is not dead, and has not much relaxed its efforts. Every vote cast in this campaign for a Temoratic Congressman is a vote cast for its strength and success.

I appeal to the men who cratic Congressman is a vote cast for its strength and success.

I appeal to the men who stood with me in 185 to pause before on next Tuesday, by act and influence, you attack the intrenchments you eracted in that campaign, and plant a stone in the eraction of the enemy's works, which, as honest men and good citizens, you must storm in 1800.

If the money question is not settled by the Congress to be elected on next Tuesday, it cannot be settled under the best conditions before 1801—three years of agitation and business prostration, the charity organization and business prostration, the charity organizations and business prostration. This situations for our grand army of labor! This should be a matter of conscience to every man.

It is not alone your own welfare, but the welfare of your neighbor, that is involved Even should your country's honor and dignity not appeal to you, this should.
